

FIELD SERVICE TECHNICIAN – SOUTH AMERICA

ACTIVITIES

- Support the Back-Office department for the analysis of anomalies reported by customers.
- Intervene at customers' plants to analyze and resolve electromechanical anomalies relating to automation & robotics activities.
- Carry out ordinary and extraordinary maintenance on all Polytec products in SA customers and possibly abroad.
- Follow commissioning of Polytec products.
- Build up intervention reports.
- Proactively report possible system improvements and opportunities for new after-sales services to the organization.

REQUIREMENTS

- Availability to often travel domestically and abroad.
- Previous experience as a maintenance technician or technician for the installation of production plants / machines.
- Good knowledge of the English language, Spanish language.
- Knowledge of Italian language will be considered as a plus.
- Good ability to read electrical diagrams / mechanical drawings and technical documentation.
- Good PC use ability.
- Basic knowledge of the Microsoft Office package.
- The desired profile is composed by excellent qualities of resistance to stress, interpersonal skills, and operational flexibility.

YOU WILL FIND

- Opportunity to work for a rapidly growing international group in the field of robotics and industrial automation.
- Possibility of growing and improving your career position, aspiring over the years to acquire responsibilities within the company.
- Opportunity to travel, meet new people from different cultural backgrounds.
- Equipment: Smartphone and PC.

AREA

- Sorocaba / Votorantim (Brazil)

	BM Group Polytec S.p.A – Service Department
	www.bmgroupp.com	polytec.bmgroupp.com
	JOB DESCRIPTION		pag.2 of 2
			Rev.

COMPANY

Polytec is the merger of two leading companies in automation, robotics , renewable energy and plant engineering, an internationally renowned company operating in the field of system integration, specializing in solutions and platforms that combine robotics, artificial intelligence, process automation and software to help manufacturing companies achieve the technological transformation they need to become smart factories.

BM Group Polytec is the most relevant operating company of BM Group, one of the most relevant global groups fully capable to provide innovative solutions in industrial automation, robotics, engineering & procurement contractor and green investments within a single entity.